YACHT CLUB HOP

In Honor of the Oxford Yacht Club of Westport.

The hop given last Thursday evening at "Sanford's Hotel," in honor of the Oxford Yacht club of Westport wound up the season's gaieties at the very popular "hotel."

The success of this as well as the two previous ones, is largely due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Woodbridge, the young man under whose management they were conducted.

The dining room was very prettily decorated and the lawn looked beautiful with its many lanterns. The patronesses were Mrs. C. P. Merwin, Mrs. G. W. Goodsell, Mrs. M. Matthews, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. J. A. Dockendorf, Mrs. Northford, Mrs. Mezey, Mrs. Walt Everett, Mrs. Alling, Mrs. C. E. Miner, Mrs. Chandler and Mrs. B. F. Bowman.

Among those present were Miss Evelyn Goodsell, Miss J. Sloan, Miss Daisy Brooks, Miss Edith Halstead, Miss Jennie Merwin, Miss Emma Hart, Miss Edith Doty, Miss Margaret Webb, Miss Harriet Austin, Miss Jane Brown, Miss Anna Corbin, Miss Bertha Corbin, Miss Rose Carley, Miss Grace Grinnell, Miss Annie Carley, Miss Lillian Merwin, Miss Mabel Platt, Miss Gertrude Platt, and Messrs. C. V. Woodbridge, A. White, M. Smith, A. C. Woodcock, C. Merwin, S. Goodsell, C. W. Worcester, Charles Bowman, C. S. Morris, M. Downs, H. Randall, Nate Fitch.

MOST GRATEFUL

And Comforting of Warming Stomachies is

SANFORD'S GINGER

It quenches thirst, warms and strengthens weak stomachs, promotes digestion, prevents chills, destroys disease germs in water drunk, and protects the system from malarial influences.

Containing among its ingredients the purest of French brandy and the best of imported ginger, it is vastly superior to the often dangerous ginger used as substitutes. Ask for SANFORD'S GINGER and look for the open danger mark on the wrapper. Sold everywhere. FORTY DROPS AND CURE. CONN., Sole Proprietors, Boston.

Entertainments.

HYPERION.

A coming attraction at the Hyperion on Wednesday evening next will be the creative comedian, Peter F. Dailey, in an entirely new farce comedy entitled "The Night Clerk," which is said to be John J. McNally's happiest effort. Sale of seats opens Monday.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

In consequence of the welcome change in the temperature a crowded house greeted the great triple bill at the Grand last night. The Kilany living pictures were received with rounds of applause. Thirty-one reproductions of well known pictures and statues were shown.

The Elliott family give three clever acts, the first being the unicycle act. The difficult evolutions upon these difficult machines are performed by two ladies and two gentlemen. Their original Russian quadrille in the torchlight carnival is most picturesque and effective. Secondly, they give a clever bicycle act, and their last act is a musical one, when they perform on fifty different instruments. Eloha, the Spanish trapeze gymnast, does a thrilling act, performing many perilous feats.

There will be a matinee to-day; prices 20 cents, 25 cents and 50 cents; and the concluding performance will be given in the evening, and no one should miss seeing this performance.

It is with pardonable pride that Mr. G. B. Bunnell at the Grand the first three days next week offers, as one of his red-letter attractions, that sumptuous revival of Tompkins' "Black Crook." It will be presented with a duplicate of the magnificence and costumes which marked its memorable runs at the Academy of Music, New York city, one-half year at Mr. Tompkins' magnificent Boston theater and at McVicker's theater, Chicago, during the world's fair. The company comprises one hundred people, who travel in five special cars. The dramatic ensemble is unusually strong, and the ballets, headed by Miles Maverhope and Kraske, have yet to be duplicated or equalled in this country. The "Stalacta," in the person of Miss Leslie Mayo, never had so beautiful an exponent, as she is said to be the most beautifully formed lady gracing the American stage.

The vaudeville specialties are principally of foreign importation and represent the successes of the London, Paris and Berlin stages. The spectacular effects will be very fine.

There will be a special holiday matinee Monday, Labor day, and the regular matinee on Wednesday.

One of the funniest farce comedies on the road this season is said to be "A Green Goods Man," which comes to the Grand for one night only, Thursday, September 4.

Morrison's "Faust" will be presented at the Grand Friday and Saturday evenings next week. There will be a matinee on Saturday.

POLI'S WONDERLAND THEATRE.

Sadi Alfarrabi and his great supporting company will be seen for the last time to-night at Poli's Wonderland theatre. The performance is so excellent that undoubtedly large audiences will be present at the closing performances. Sadi Alfarrabi will soon return to St. Petersburg to be near his patron, the czar.

Interest is already at a high pitch over the Rossow midgits, who have been secured as the star attraction at the Wonderland for next week. These remarkable illiputians, who have been well styled the wonder of the age, are, besides being the smallest men in the world, the most extraordinary acrobats and athletes. Their wrestling and boxing exhibition is said to be the funniest thing on the vaudeville stage, and the writer, who has seen it, does not hesitate to declare that on no stage has anything ever been produced which is calculated to create greater interest or induce heartier laughter. The engagement at the Wonderland will mark the only appearance of the Rossows in New Haven.

Negotiations Still Proceeding.

London, Aug. 30.—Prime Minister Salisbury made a statement in the house of lords to-day in regard to the questions between France and Great Britain in regard to Siam and especially in relation to the differences as to rights upon the banks of the Mekong river. Negotiations were still proceeding with France concerning these questions, he said, and there seemed to have existed on the part of both France and Great Britain a tendency to understate the claims and rights of England, but all of the parties were approaching the discussion of all the question involved in a thoroughly friendly spirit.

It Is Only Idle Talk.

Buzards Bay, Mass., Aug. 30.—Ex-Postmaster General Bissell, who is spending a few days with his family at Marion, was seen this afternoon by a representative of the New England Associated Press, while Mr. Bissell was on his way to Gray Gables to call on the President and Mrs. Cleveland. In reference to the published statement from Buffalo that the president had offered him the vacant position on the supreme court bench, Mr. Bissell said that there was nothing whatever in the report and that it was idle newspaper talk.

$800 IN GOLD DROWNS A MAN.

At the burning of a steamboat on the Hudson river forty years ago, many of the passengers were drowned. Among the bodies brought up from the bottom of the river by grappling was that of a man known to have been an excellent swimmer. Around his waist was a belt containing nearly $800 in gold. That told the story.

In old and chronic cases of indigestion (dyspepsia or gastritis)—it is all the same—the sufferer develops a great variety of symptoms and often dies—poisoned by the products of his own torpid and inflamed stomach. His food, instead of being digested, and so furnishing strength and physical substance, ferments and putrefies within him. The chief process of life is arrested at a vital point. The more he eats the worse off he is. And yet unless he can be fed he must also perish. People do so die, daily, by thousands, but we doctors seldom have the moral courage to give the cause its true name lest we should be laughed at for our inability to cure so "simple" a thing as indigestion. Simple? Why, it is the capstone of all complaints and the mother of most of them.—So writes a famous English physician.

The sufferer's friends often advise him to cheer up; to throw off his lethargy and eat freely. Bad advice. He knows better. "No," he answers, "I cannot; my food does me no good." He is right. Food now is gold in the spent swimmer's belt.

Take light nourishment, followed immediately by a dose of the Shaker Digestive Cordial—a new and radical remedy discovered and prepared by the Shakers of Mt. Lebanon, N. Y.—the essence of medicinal herbs and plants cultivated by them alone. Then continue with it. Relieves at once and soon cures. Pleasant to the palate and adapted to all constitutions. ## Disciples of Old Isaac.

The members of the Nonantum and Fish and Game club of this city are looking forward with eager anticipation toward their trip to their preserve in the province of Quebec. They will start next Thursday.

The club has now been in existence for about five years, and is a joint stock company, which owns in the neighborhood of 300 acres of land about 200 miles north of Quebec, and leave a tract of country about the size of New Haven county, where they repair annually for a period of fishing and hunting that rivals anything that can be found this side of the border, according to the tales that have been brought back by the members in former years.

Financial.

Speculation Was Irregular With the Tone of the Market Firm.

New York, Aug. 30.—Speculation at the stock exchange was irregular again to-day, but in the main the tone of the market was firm when the strength of sterling exchange, the engagements of $2,350,000 gold for shipment to Europe and the further sales of stocks for foreign account are taken into consideration.

At the start prices were generally lower, a break in Tobacco of 1 1/2 per cent. to 92 having induced selling by some of the small traders of bullish proclivities. Tobacco's break was the result of the announcement that Attorney General Hancock of this state intended bringing suit against the company for violation of the anti-trust law. The drop brought in orders to cover shorts and a rally to 96 followed. Before the expiration of the first
